Lutheran Women And Daughters Sing in the Yule

Candlelight, greens and the traditional Christmas tree in the center of the floor greeted the women of First Lutheran church and their daughters when they assembled in the social room of the church last Tuesday evening for their annual Christmas party, sponsored by Faith circle.

Mrs. Edmund Hansen, presi-

Mrs. Edmund Hansen, president, welcomed the guests Mrs. Frank Johnson, program chairman spoke briefly and asked Mrs. Martinson to announce the evening's program from the writings of Martin Luther and of his explanation of the Christmas story and of the beautiful message at Christmas time.

Excerpts from his writings were read by Mrs. Bill Olsen, while colored slides of some of the famous paintings of the Holy Family were shown. This was interspersed by songs by a quartette composed of Mrs. Lowell Knapp, Mrs. Jim Capelli, Mrs. Dave McMurray and Mrs. Arnold Johnson Jr. They each, also, read portions of the Christmas story from the Bible.

Mrs. Dave McMurray concluded this portion of the program with a Christmas solo.

A yearly ritual at these parties is the joining of hands and circling around the Christmas tree singing carols. Mrs. John Eliassen at the piano.

An offering was taken up for gifts for the Parkland Children's Home, in Everett, Wash.

Refreshments were served from a table covered with a green cloth and a panel of pine boughs, tall green vigil lights and red Christmas balls down the center. Mrs. Edmund Hansen presided at the silver service.

Faith Circle Has Mother-Daughter Christmas Party

Faith circle of First Lutheran church entertained the women and daughters of the church with the annual Christmas party, Tuesday.

A seasonal program consisting of a group of fifth grade girls from Lewis and Clark school, accompanied by Mrs.
Grace Eliassen, sang Christmas songs; Jackie Singleton gave a reading; Theresa Fastaband, Helen Luukinen and Lynn Ahola, accompanied by Mrs. R. Martinson played Christmas carols on their flutes; a group of girls, called "The Group", Rosemary Boss, Roxann Curry, Donna Campbell, Linda Gustafson, Sandy Duff, Ora Wright and Gail Chessman, entertained with their musical instruments and songs during the program and while refreshments were being served Kay Kaufman, accompanied by Roxann Hill sang several songs; and Mrs. Olga Henningsen, program chairman read greetings from the Rev. and and Mrs. H. Storaasli, former pastor of First Lutheran.

While Christmas music was played, the women, walking around the beautifully decorated Christmas tree, placed their offering to the Lutheran Child Center of Everett, Wash., under the tree.

After the formal program, everyone joined hands, and marching around the Christmas tree sang many of the familiar Christmas songs — including a Norwegian song, familiar to the older members of the church.

At a Christmasy table, Christmas cookies, sandwiches and salads were served. Mrs. Walter Kelm, president of Faith circle, poured coffee, and Mrs Robert Forness, vice-president served punch.

Committee in charge of the refreshments were, Mrs. Ed Paldanius, and Mrs. John Prepula, co-chairmen and the Mesdames Jens Lervick, Edmund Hansen, Bill Olsen, Eifil Forness. Robert Forness. Chas. Berry, William Jarvi, Chris Jager, Eric Hauke and Miss Eleanor Rasmussen.

Program Given For Faith Circle Of 1st Lutheran

A festive atmosphere greeted approximately 100 members and friends when Faith circle of First Lutheran church entertained at its annual Christmas party. Vigil lights, holly and cedar were used in the windows and about the room. A nativity scene on the piano, with graceful figurines made by Mrs. Petra Henningsen, drew much attention.

Mrs. Walter Kelm, Faith circle president gave the welcome after which Mrs. F. Christensen gave the opening devotions and then introduced the following program: Piano selections by Randy Law, "Fantasia" by Mozart, and "The Little White Donkey;" vocal numbers by Mrs. T. Hakkensen, "Infant Jesus" a Polish carol, and "Fum, Fum, Fum" a Spanish carol arranged by Cassler, accompanied by Mrs. Ronald Martinson; flute solo "Syrinx" (DeBussy) by Penny Price; a reading "How far is Bethlehem", by Nancy Wahlstrom; and Christmas selections by a vocal and instrumental group known as "The Group."

An offering for the Luther child center in Everett, Wash., was given as all marched around the lighted Christmas tree singing carols. They were accompanied by Mrs. J. Eliassen.

Refreshments of dainty sandwiches, cookies and salads were served from a table covered by a gold satin cloth, and centered by brass seven-point candelabra with green candles set in greens and ornaments. Mrs. Kelm presided at the silver service, and Mrs. F. Fremstad served punch to the youngsters present. Recepts for the exetheren Child Center was 83.79 (a large Croud attended

The Christmas season was ushered in recently at First Lutheran church, when Faith circle entertained for church women and friends in an atmosphere gay with a brightly lit tree and other attractive decorations.

Mrs. Eric Hauke greeted the guests and introduced Mrs. Andrew Nygaard, who read the Christmas Gospel.

The program consisted of a puppet skit presented by Mrs. Walter Norem's Sunday school class, depicting the birth of Christ; a piano solo "The Holy City" by Mrs. Carole Schwegoland songs and dances around the tree by a group of young girls and boys in Scandinavian dress, directed by Mrs. Laurence Obie. ## FAITH CIRCLE OF FIRST LUTHERAN CELEBRATES FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Fo celebrate the infructs anniversary of their organization, raith Circle of the First Luffleran Charen plans to have a dinner at the Astoria Country Club Thursday night.

Plans have been made under the leadership of 1972 officers Mrs. Carl Kvistad, president; Mrs. Joe Henningsen, secretary and Mrs. Frank Johnson, trackers, who were first elected as the officers of the charter members in 1922 and are again serving. Miss Frances Gustafson, who joined the group a year later, is vice-president in charge of invitations.

Other charter members who will be at the dinner are Mrs. Ins Lervick, Mrs. Ole Englund, Miss Johanna Nielsen, Mrs. Ed Ross and Mrs. George Niemi of Portland. A number of former members are coming from out of town and from this area for the Jocasion.

The terrible girls, who chose the name "Girls' Guild" wrote into the first constitution that boy friends could not call for them before 10:00 p.m., and that they should resign from the group when they were forty years old.

As the girls matried or entered the business world they renamed themselves "Senior Guild." The boy friends had become fathers who stayed home with the children. But the organization continued its work of helping to support the church by their bazaars, food sales and rummage sales. Their Christmas parties for all of the women of the church became a tradition as did their putting fresh flowers on the altar for all services.

In later years when the groups of women organized as Circles, the Guild became known as Faith Circle.

The teenagers have become retirees and grandmothers in many cases, but younger members have joined and help to keep this an active auxiliary in First Lutheran.

On the evening's program will be songs sung to the tune of East Side, West Side, and Till We Meet Again that have been sung at every anniversary dinner since the one in 1932. Soloist and accompanist on her autoharp will be Mrs. Arne Strandjord, the pastor's wife. Mrs. O. M. Olsen will read an original poem about the history, and Mrs. H. Storaasli, former pastor's wife, will bring special greetings. Mrs. F. M. Christensen, mistress of ceremonies, has arranged other features to be given by members.

The table decorations, carrying out the golden anniversary theme, have been planned and prepared by Mrs. Eric Hauke.
